Secretary's Report: The secretary's report was approved as it had been sent out by a motion from Judy Thompson and seconded by Jessica Kropp. Thanks to Will Hose for completing the minutes last month.

Treasurer's Report: We received $920. From memberships in the past couple of days. Arvest has a balance of $412.02. Union Bank has a balance of $3159.95

Old Business:

There is still no news about the Online Membership site. Rudi has been trying to get it going. It was mentioned that Bill Hayes should set up an account for SQUARE so that we can accept credit cards for membership.

It was also mentioned how nice the theatre looks inside and outside with all the new paint, chairs, and stage. A name plate will be added to the chairs as an appreciation of all the hard work for Brad Storey and Scotty Jenkins.

New Business:

- The Benson Awards will be awarded to the following shows: Dixie Swim Club, You're a Good Man Charlie Brown, The Foreigner, Dearly Beloved. Oliver, The Penultimate Problem of Sherlock Holmes, and EB Scrooge.

- EB Scrooge is still needing a Tiny Tim, and a couple of the teenagers have quit and need to be replaced. These openings need to be filled quickly! If you have any suggestions please let LaDonna know.
- The Ouachita Arts Celebration is November 5 on the street in front of the theatre. JOLT will perform a cutting from “ The Outsiders”. It is recommended that we have a membership table out front, EB Scrooge have posters about the upcoming play, Robbie’s competition play should have advertising, and it would be great if the Sherlock Holmes characters would roam the streets in costume.
- November 4 and 6 the Theatre Department of UARM (University of Arkansas Rich Mountain) will be performing Nina Variations at the theatre. Cost is $5 for adults and $3 for students. Friday performance will be at 7:30 pm and Sunday’s performance will be at 2:30 pm.
- Joe and LaDonna will supply some candy for Bill for Halloween
- Box Office and Concession stand assignments were handed out for the Sherlock Holmes play this weekend and next.

Adjourn: LaDonna made the motion to adjourn the meeting and Judy K seconded it. Motion carried.
