Cast Announced for BIG

SPRING MUSICAL

The classic 1987 motion picture fantasy bursts onto the stage in the unforgettable theatrical experience. Josh Baskin is sick of being an awkward kid. At a carnival, he makes a wish to the Zoltar machine to become "big." Complete with Zoltar, a giant floor piano and stand-out roles for adults and children, BIG is a family-friendly smash-hit that is full of high-energy singing and dancing. There will be lots of young folks in this production.

This is the spring musical scheduled for May 14,15,16 and May 22, 23, 24. Because there is no show Sunday, May 17, due to the MHS graduation. The May 14 date is a Thursday. . Jessica Kropp is directing with Judy Kropp in charge of the music.

Membership

Our theatre is an all volunteer organization. We depend on donations, memberships, and season ticket sales to keep us going. A show like Annie costs us $2500 just for royalties. On top of that we have all our other show expenses. Our memberships are for a year and require renewal each year. We have been sending out email reminders that memberships are expiring. Some folks have replied and rejoined. Thank you. A substantial number have not. Please check your emails for renewal notices. You can pay online, by mail, or in person at our office. Help OLT to continue and grow. Join or renew. Membership categories are online at oltmena.com, and in our show programs. While online you can join by following the screen prompts.

Summer Musical - Little Women

Louisa May Alcott’s beloved story of the adventures of the four March sisters is brought to vivid musical life in Little Women. The Civil War is in full swing, and the March sisters -- Meg, the oldest, a romantic, the spirited and tomboyish Jo, sweet and loving Beth, and irascible, playful Amy -- live in Concord, Massachusetts with their Marmee while their father is on the battlefield. Filled with adventure (both lived and imagined), heartbreak, and a deep sense of hope, the struggle of these “Little Women” to find their own voices mirrors the growing pains of a young America. With buoyant, joyful melodies, memorable characters, and a big-hearted story Little Women reminds us that “sometimes when you dream, your dreams come true.” The show will be directed by Alexa Night and will performed mid August 2020.

A Midsummer Night's Dream

The joint effort between UARM and OLT was a big success. The show was an outstanding effort by both the actors and the directors, Robby and Gini Burt. Furthermore, the set, lighting and costumes were great. In addition to the regular 6 performances for the public there were several special showings for the area schools. The goal of OLT is to provide not only entertainment but also an opportunity for the community to experience and learn about other plays and playwrights. By combining the resources of UARM and OLT it was possible for young and old alike to experience one of the works of William Shakespeare. As part of our educational program OLT has also provided a venue for young playwrights to showcase their work. One of those efforts is in the works for a show following BIG.

Coming events

The classic 1987 motion picture fantasy bursts onto the stage in the unforgettable theatrical experience. Josh Baskin is sick of being an awkward kid. At a carnival, he makes a wish to the Zoltar machine to become "big." Complete with Zoltar, a giant floor piano and stand-out roles for adults and children, Big is a great choice for theatres that are looking for a family-friendly smash-hit that is full of high-energy singing and dancing. This will be the spring musical starting Thursday, May 14.

In early June there will be a JOLT production. Final choices are being made on the specific production which is to be chosen from several proposed shows already in rehearsal.

Louisa May Alcott's beloved story of the adventures of the four March sisters is brought to vivid musical life in Little Women. Little Women reminds us that "sometimes when you dream, your dreams come true." The show will be directed by Alexa Night and performed mid August 2020,

THE LAST LIFEBOAT is destined to become a theatre classic! " THE LAST LIFEBOAT is the untold story of J. Bruce Ismay, the owner of the White Star shipping Line when The Titanic sank, whose decision to save himself rather than go down with the ship made him the scapegoat for one of the greatest disasters of all time.

The show will be directed by Evan Night and be produced in October 2020

In this hilarious, fast-paced comedy, the inhabitants of one of the smallest trailer parks in Texas—four doublewides and a shed—are thrown for a loop when they realize the nearby town of Tugaloo is determined to annex them.

And it's not as if they don't already have enough to deal with. The show will be produced at Christmas time and will be directed by Scotty Jenkins

OLT is issuing a call for help.

Maintaining a strong membership is critical for a vibrant theatre program. We are currently asking for a volunteer willing to coordinate our membership activities by acting as our membership chairman.

As chairman you will be provided with a committee of other members who will help with membership activities. To serve on a committee one does not have to be on the board. However, as a board member you would be closer to the action. With elections coming up in May, it might be a good idea to run for a board position.

The nominating committee of Julie Ulmer, Jane Buttermilk, and Amanda Baker is looking for folks willing to serve on the OLT board.

If you have an interest in working with the board in helping plan future shows and theatre improvements, contact one of the committee members or other current board members.
