

4. Artistic Director Report—Judy

- Insurance for the Silas Marner cast and crew has been paid.
- Harmony, is still interested in coming and has offered the date of Dec. 16. Rudi made a motion we ask them to come, Ann seconded and the motion passed. Judy will contact them.

5. House—Brad

- Brad has contacted an exterminator to get of the water bug/roach problem. He will be coming in on Friday to fog them out under the floors. Cost $94.00
- Brad went to talk to Alvin's Heating and Air to deliver the comp tickets and to talk about a schedule to have them prepare our system for heating and air. We need to remember to get an appointment after the weather starts warming up before the Spring Musical each year.
- As Brad has been working on cleaning the dragon room, he found old spotlights that have been put aside because they are not working. He suggested trying to give them away or throw them away. Rudi said he would take them home and try to get them working. If they cannot be fixed, he will discard them or try to donate them.

6. Publicity—Julie

- The papers have the articles for the next couple of weeks for Silas Marner. She is asking for photos for the papers in October from Brad.
- October 12 will be the next Movie Night and the show will be "Phantom of the Opera".

7. Play Selection—Lamar upcoming shows include:

- Seussified Christmas directed by Makayla Kenyon-Ortiz and Lexi Payne
- We still have not seen the final copy of Amanda's winter play. The one Lamar read was way too short!
- Little Shop of Horrors will be the spring musical directed by Alex. Alex wanted to let everyone know she has no funds to help with the production. Judy said she believed that Bill could get her a credit card with a prescribed amount on it, that she could then use at Walmart or wherever. Handy Hardware and Mike's always bills us and this should not be a problem.
- April Burt will direct the Fantastiks in the summer!

8. Readers Theatre- Ann

- On October 24, the Lyric Players will have their first venue for the Extension Homemakers. The next meeting of the Players will be September 24. Ann would like to especially promote Lum and Abner.

Makayla made the motion to adjourn and Ann seconded.

Respectfully submitted,

Judy Kropp, OLT secretary
